

Netherlands - Asia Honours Summer School

CONNECTING AMBITIOUS, INTERDISCIPLINARY YOUNG PROFESSIONALS WITH YOU

Who are we?

The Netherlands-Asia Honours Summer School (NAHSS) is a public – private initiative, supported by a unique Triple Helix Network of universities, Dutch ministries and multinationals that want to invest in young top talent. Yearly, 70 to 100 ambitious and internationally oriented students are selected to participate in this national honours programme. The NAHSS gives them the opportunity to develop their professional skills and broaden their knowledge about Southeast Asia and China.

Our vision & goal

The NAHSS strives for a future where young professionals are prepared for a world where Southeast Asian and Chinese actors will play an important role on the global stage. Through our ABC-programme, consisting of academic, business and cultural components, we strive to facilitate the discussion from multiple perspectives. The NAHSS prepares their delegates to have an open, yet critical and informed outlook on society.

The NAHSS in numbers

- Top 70 to 100 students yearly selected by representatives of our partners
- Over 950 internationally-oriented and multidisciplinary alumni
- 37% of our alumni works or has worked for one of our partners
- 63% of our alumni state that the NAHSS influenced their future career choice
- 93% of our alumni state that the NAHSS enhanced their professional skills

What can we do for you?

Recruitment possibilities of our excellent alumni

- ✓ Build strong and long-term relations with our 950+ alumni
- ✓ Connect with our dynamic talent pool through recruitment events

Gain new insights and support young professionals

- ✓ Gain insights into current trends in Asia from a multidisciplinary team of top students through a consultancy project
- ✓ Familiarise excellent students with your organisation
- ✓ Become acquainted with the newest generation of young professionals

Access to our unique Triple Helix network

- ✓ Obtain access to our public – private network consisting of highly renowned Dutch and Asian partners
- ✓ Perfect opportunity to create brand awareness